

A Message From The President

It was great to see you all again last month. I hope you enjoyed the exhibit and presentation.

This month, October 28, we will be back at the Delaware Library, 84 E Winter St., at the usual time, 7:30 pm. Following a brief business meeting, Louise Minor of the Columbus Museum of Art, will tell us about their current exhibit, George Bellows and the American Experience. Bellows, a Columbus native, is best known for his bold, gritty paintings of turn of last century life.

Just one more reminder, please don't forget to renew your membership by the end of the month.

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you at the meeting.

Ken Hildebrand

The following are a few links that relate to the meeting program: <http://www.columbusmuseum.org/exhibitions/> and http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/George\_Bellows.

*Paintings by George Bellows:
Dempsey and Firpo (left) and Men of the Docks (right)*

Have information about exhibits? Seen an interesting show? Read a good review about an artist? Please share by sending articles, photos, and/or info to Kris Kolb, editor, at hyland\_kolb@columbus.rr.com.