

February 2013

January's group critique meeting was lots of fun. It was a small gathering but most everyone brought an art work to share so we had a lively discussion. Thanks to those of you who participated.

Our next meeting will be on Monday, February 25th but
WE WILL NOT BE MEETING AT THE LIBRARY.

Instead, please plan to meet at the Ross Museum located at 60 S. Sandusky Street in Delaware.

Our speaker will be Justin Kronewetter and he will be showing us pieces from the museum's collection. I look forward to seeing you all then.

Lori Palmer

Editor's note:

We may be meeting in the classroom in the basement, but we're not sure yet. Richard will try to let you know earlier in the day on Monday, so keep an eye on your email. Otherwise, we'll be directed to where we'll be meeting when we arrive.

● ● ●

The DAG Arts Castle exhibit is fast approaching.
The dates and times to drop your work off at the Castle are:

Sunday, April 14th from 1:00-3:00

OR

Monday, April 15th from 4:00-6:00

Please mark your calendar.

Lynda and her helpers will begin hanging the work
on Tuesday, April 16th.

UP-COMING EVENT

OPENING DOORS: Artists from Delaware's Northwest Neighborhood

Benny Shoults

Ray Wollschleger

Please remember to send me pics and info at hyland\_kolb@columbus.rr.com.

*Respectfully submitted: 2/23/13
Kris Kolb, editor*

This exhibit opens at the City Art Center on March 1 (First Friday) and was spear-headed by the Northwest Neighborhood Association's president and recent DAG member, Benny Shoults. It features the art of many of our members, old and new. We hope that you will stop by the gallery at some point during the month of March. Visit <http://cityartcenter.org/nna/> for more information about the gallery, the exhibit, and the artists.

The Northwest Neighborhood borders downtown Delaware with tree-lined streets, and beautiful old houses of grand style and heavy ornamentation. It is an inspiring setting for artists, and an area that is free of conformity, where no two houses are alike, just as there are no two artists alike.

The exhibit features work from nine artists whose connection is a shared affinity for this unique neighborhood. Many of the artists are members of the Delaware Artists Guild and have exhibited around the Central Ohio area and beyond. For some of the artists, this will be their first time exhibiting in a gallery setting.

The exhibit runs from March 1 through March 30, 2013. The gallery is open on Friday and Saturday, from 6 pm to 9 pm, and by appointment. City Art Center is located at 22 E. Winter Street in downtown Delaware, Ohio.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Join us for the opening reception on Friday, March 1st from 6 to 9 at City Art Center. The event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.

PARTICIPATING ARTISTS

Charlton Amidon, Thomas Conrad, Virginia Corwin, Lynda Elias, Kathleen Kahn, Kris Hyland Kolb, Richard Kolb, Benny Shoults, and Ray Wollschleger.

Virginia Corwin