A Message From The President

Our next meeting will be Monday, October 27. We will meet at The Delaware Library, 84 E. Winter St. at the usual time, 7:30 pm.

We will have the normal officer and chairperson reports and follow-up on formation of a critique group, a possible field trip to the Wexner, and other ideas for guild activities.

Our speaker will be Damianne Fischer, a Mixed Media Artist, who uses ordinary dryer lint to create uniquely emotional sculpture.

If you haven't already, I hope you will renew your membership dues for 2014-15. At the September meeting, we approved an increase in regular annual dues to $25 for this year. Still an exceptional bargain.

I'm looking forward to seeing you, at the meeting.

Ken Hildebrand

We have several opportunities to exhibit our diverse talents this year. Most of you are aware that the Y has been available as a place to exhibit our work and we put up a fresh exhibit every three months. This would bring us to early December for the next change of work. Another opportunity has been suggested in the form of a postcard exhibit next year at the Art Castle. This exhibit requires each artist to make one or two 4 x 6 postcards. Any medium can be used to create an original piece of art that will be contributed to the art castle and sold after being exhibited there. Your work will sent to the Art Castle in an envelope. We need a theme or slogan for this fundraiser and I hope some of you might have ideas for it.

Gallery 22 will be the location for our annual Artist Guild Exhibit this year and it will run through much of the summer. I will update you on details later this year.

Some members are interested in creating a critique group that might meet on a regular basis at times other than our regular meetings. We can continue the discussion of what members might find convenient at our regular meeting.

Exhibit Coordinator

From the treasurer:

We had a wonderful turnout for the opening meeting of our new program year!

Along with many renewing members from last year we were happy to see returning members from prior years, Karen Everhart and Cindy Jones as well as three new members, Mike Jones, William Bauer and Robert McCleery.

Please join me in welcoming them!

As of 9/27/14 we have received 17 membership fees along with two that were early payers from last year so our rolls stand at 19 members!

Please remember to get your dues in as soon as possible so that we can establish our budget for the upcoming year. The new membership form with the newly adopted $25.00 dues mentioned is attached to the newsletter and you can send your membership payment to our PO Box or bring it to the next meeting. The address to use is Delaware Artist's Guild PO Box 234 Delaware, OH 43015.

Hope to see you all again at the next meeting!

Help needed:

The NNA is hosting its annual art show at Gallery 22, the old City Arts Center, at 22 East Winter Street on November's First Friday from 6:00 to 9:00. This is the grand opening of the new gallery and as part of the evening festivities there will be an open wine bar. We are looking for several people to volunteer as wine-tenders during that time. If you are interested please contact Ray Wollschleger at 440-479-0839 or e-mail at rdwollschleger@yahoo.com.

This month's speaker: DAMIANNE FISCHER

My life adventure began in the very small town in rural southeastern Ohio in 1963 in an area not known for its “art” but, for the most part, coal and poverty. Regardless of where I was in my life's journey, my need to create followed me. And now for the past fourteen years I, along with my family, have been residing in Delaware, Ohio.

For several years I have been experimenting with mixed media and, strangely, my inspiration comes from the “lowly” lint in the dryer vent. I love pushing together and incorporating materials that on the surface do not coexist. During the process of combining materials they become an integrated and cohesive object that emanates from the darker part of my female psyche.

I have never formally studied or pursued art; it just seemed to pursue me as far back as I have memories. Creating art takes me to a raw emotional place. I want the viewers of my work to allow themselves to experience their own raw emotion. I hope I succeed.
